

Certificate in Leadership, Innovation, Technology, and Diversity

Course Number	Title	Credit Hours	Notes	When to take this course
CLAS 2600	LEADS Colloquium	1	Introduces LEADS concepts/values	Freshman or sophomore year
LEADS Electives	LEADS special topics classes offered as CLAS 3000 Departmental electives approved for LEADS credit* LBST 2301 (LEADS designated sections only - LEADS will be listed in the title)*	6	At least 3 credit hours of LEADS electives must be earned through CLAS 3000 CLAS 3000 sections range from 1 - 3 credit hours and are offered in the full term and partial terms	When 30 or more credit hours have been earned If you are taking a LEADS designated course in your major department, you must meet all prerequisites required for the course
CLAS 4800	LEADS capstone	3	Capstone project tailored to the student's individual interests and experiences Writing intensive - Fulfills 3 credit hours of general education W credit.	As a senior After all LEADS electives have been completed
Total hours		10

Departmental electives and LBST 2301 sections approved for LEADS credit will be posted on the LEADS website and LEADS will be in the course title. Only LEADS designated sections can be used to fulfill the certificate requirements.*

To declare interest in the LEADS certificate program, visit <https://forms.gle/abncje2xZdJwgABx9>