

UCOL 2200: EXPLORING PATHWAYS TO SUCCESS

Spring 2017

Are you interested in Leadership? Innovation? Professional and Personal Success?

Get a jump start on exploring pathways to success as a leader by enrolling in this exciting 10-week (1 credit hour) course focused on developing your competencies in communication, critical thinking, collaboration, creativity, and careers.

PROSPECT FOR SUCCESS

Topics Covered:

Leadership

Innovation

Technology

Globalization

Diversity

Ethics

Personal Assessments

Career Assessments

*UCOL 2200 Students'
Testimonials:*

"This course has made a great impact on my reflective writing."

"We have to explain our opinions and articulate our thoughts. Then we are challenged by the professor to dig deeper."

"This class not only provides relevant information [on] modern society, but also provides the opportunity for discussion."

"This course help[ed] me develop communication skills by reflecting and giving my perspective on certain topics, as well as being able to hear and understand others' point of views."

